Monday, July 10

didn't sleep all night so when I began to feel sleepy at 7 A.M., I slept until 10:00. Planted the border & did a few miscellaneous chores — these took until 7:00 P.M., and I'm a little on the exhausted side — A by the way, is this a sunburn!

Schoenke arrived at 9:00 and gave Marie her first lesson in observing weather. Not very good clouds even present. Left at 14:10 Ed P.S. That was 5:40, but rrs seemed easier to me. W.A.

Tuesday, July 11

cleaned club house & observatory - the plants don't look so good, nor does the scrubbing. Also, this sunburn is still a painful issue. Soupy all night.

Wednesday, July 12

Today I cleaned the north thump of bushes fairly well, the east thump not so well - that's all for a sort of sick little girl. I'm going home tomorrow morning to put something on this sunburn, take a good bath, check on the picnic attendance, and get some sleep! — Sorry Ed's, this doesn't sound so scientific.

And by the way, I think an old ice box would do this place good. Prinslow could keep beer in it.

Thursday, July 13

Aw revoir — keys are all in the safe.

Sat. July 15 Schenke arrived at 9:40 and was unable to get in. Obs. because keys were in safes. Went to Halbachs to get a few tools to force my way in. Nothing stops me when the night is clear. Started at 11:50 and went home at 17:00 see you later Ed.

M.A.S. Picnic Sunday July

The entire society became the guests of Marie Antone at the annual picnic. Guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Bond, head of the basic products industries at Allis Chalmers, who gave a lecture entitled "Truth and Astronomy". Mr. Bond presented a rather revolutionary theory of the earth being the center of the universe, to which one of ^{our} members, Henry Steinberg, was heartily in agreement, and offered to entertain the society at his home in the attempt to prove his theory.

A rather unusual touch was added by the bestowment of trophies to all of the helpers, who generously contributed their time and efforts to the preparation of the grounds for the picnic.

A grand time was had by all of the picnicers and ~~their~~ families, the group was at least fifty strong, even though a few of our members were sorely missed.

A touch of sadness prevailed with the knowledge of the absence of Mrs. M. J. W. Phillips, but we are sure that he rests happy with the knowledge that our annual picnic continued.
